Need Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Brookfield, Mo.—"Two years ago I was unable to do any kind of work and only weighed 118 pounds. My trouble dates back to the dates back to the time that women may expect nature to bring on them the Change of Life. I got a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Ve getable. Compound and it made me feel much better, and I have continued its use. I am very grateful to you for the good health Lousignont, 414 S. Livingston Street, Brockfield, Mo.

The Change of Life is the most critical period of a woman's existence, and neglect of health at this time invites disease and pain.

Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to medicine that will so successfully carry women through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs.

For 30 years it has been curing women from the worst forms of female ills—inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, and nervous prostration.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confiden-tial letter to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

NEW YORK POLICEMEN SUSPENDED

Will be ried on Charges of Brutality to a Woman-Mayor Gaynor Made Personal Investigation-Finds that the Disgraceful Affair is Notoriously I rue.

New York, Feb. 10.—Mayor Gaynor directed the suspension today of two more policemen, pending trial on charges of brutality, this time to a woman. He took the case out of the hands of Police Commissioner Baker and made all investigations personally, through the commissioner of accounts.

Plied Wengan with Whithau.

Plied Woman with Whiskey. Plied Woman with Whiskey.

The mayor's letter to Commissioner Baker said: "I learned several days ago of an alleged abuse of a woman by policemen in the rear of a barber shop. I find that the charge is true in respect of Officer Weitzel of the traffic squad and also of a patrolman who is probably John W. Grove. Weitzel openly took the woman from the street to the room and piled her with whiskey and assaulted her. The other of-

"Let Weitzel and Grove be suspended and tried forthwith. We must get rid of all ruffians on the police force. Let the captain of that precinct and also the inspector of that district come before me tomorrow.

An Openly Disgraceful Affair, "The whole disgraceful affair oc-curred so openly and is so notorious in the neighborhood that it is incredible that the captain and inspector should not have learned of it in the exercise of ordinary attention." Weitzel and Grove were suspended by Commissioner Baker late today.

CONGRESS.

First Night Session of the House-The Proposed Income Tax Amendment.

Proposed Income Tax Amendment.

Washington, Feb. 10.—A night session of the house followed the usual convention of that body today. It was the first time during this session of congress that either branch had found it necessary to meet after nightfall, and it resulted from inability to decide during the three hours the matter was before the house today whether or not the house members of the joint committee on printing should obey the summons of the supreme court of the District of Columbia to appear before it tomerrow to answer mandamus proceedings brought by the Valley Paper company of Holyoke, Mass, which is dissatisfied with certain paper awards made by the committee.

The senate was prompt in its action today in denying the right of courts to interfere with its legislative function and instructed its members of the committee to ignore the summons. The secretary was instructed to inform the court that the senate took the view that the court was without jurisdiction to summon a congressional committee before it. A feature of the senate's session was a set speech by Senator Borah, in which he took issue with Governor Hughes of New York in his contention that the proposed income tax amendment to the constitution would not effect a tax on state securities.

DRINK?

When you stop to think of the terrible results which come to men who indulge in excess in intoxicating beverages, well may you ask. Why do men drink? The fact simply stated is "A victim of the Drink Habit can no more resist liquor than a man with ague can stop shivering." Drunkenness is a disease and must be treated as such. The wives and mothers of those who drink intoxicants will be glad to know there is a remedy which will restore their loved ones to lives of sobriety and usefulness. Many thousands of grateful women praise Orrine for its benefits. Orrine has been known to effect a cure after all other means failed.

Paxson & Rockefeller, 24 West Park St., Butte, Mont., tell about a case of drunkenness of 25 years' standing. Read what they say: "A gentleman well known to us, who has been a hard drinker for twenty-five years, stated he had been entirely cwred by Orrine. We consider this a remarkable case, as this gentleman has been treated three different times at a well known sanatorium. This and other cases that have come to our knowledge gives us confidence in your preparation, and it gives us pleasure to recommend it to those needing a reliable cure for intemperance."

Orrine is prepared in two forms. No.

HEBREW SWINDLER

Worked Game on Unemployed Men from Whom He Got Money for Carfare to a Paper Mill.

A number of local men are anxious to meet a young man with a cast of features indicative of Jewish origin, and who calls himself "Mr. Drimler," says the New Britain Herald, Several says the New Britain Herald. Several who were seeking employment were victimized by the fellow, whose bait was an advertisement printed in an obscure paper. The men were promised good employment and they readily consented to pay "Drimler" for their transportation. The money was turned over to the swindler but he did not show up with the tickets as per agreement.

The swindler made quite a sum of money on the game. The first to com-per agreement.

The swindler made quite a sum of money on the game. The first to complain to the police were Mathew Walkukus and Peter Ambros. Thomas Noland, who was in the police court this morning on an old charge, was also caught, but only for $1, according to his report. Walkukus and Ambros called at the station and told of how they had been frisked for all their ready coin. They showed a copy of the advertisement, signed "Drimler," which invited men out of employment to call at 250 Elm street. New Britain, between eight and twelve o'clock either Sunday or Monday morning.

Walkukus and Ambros called at the address yesterday. Several had been there previously, they learned. According to one count, six girls and fifteen men called on the swindler, Walkukus and Ambros were told that there were good jobs awaiting them in a paper mill in Berlin, N. H. High wages were paid. They would have to pay their own transportation. Drimler wanted to take their money and get the tickets but Walkukus said he would get them, and he did so at a cost of $13.20.

Drimler persuaded them to give the tickets to him for safe keeping. He

Upon further investigation they learned he had called at the depot and made an effort to get the money for the tickets but was refused. In all other cases Drimler got the cash from the dupes.

TOLD OF FAMOUS PEOPLE.

Gladstone's power of memory was always one of his greatest assets. In his last years he often lamented that it was not what it had been; but even so, it came triumphantly out of some remarkable tests. In his 83d year he set himself to recall Mazoni's ode on the death of Napoleon, which, as a young man, he had translated into English. He had entirely forgotten his own version, but by dint of hard "digging" or "fishing up," as he called it, he wrote down 104 of the 168 Italian lines. Two years later he essayed to write from memory a complete list of all the men who had been his cabinet colleagues, and enumerated 68 of the 70. of the 70.

Ernesto Nathan, mayor of Rome, who declined on several occasions to accept a decoration from King Victor Emmanuel, was finally forced by a clever ruse on the part of the king to take the grand cross of the Crown of Italy. Nathan was making a call at the Quirinal, and when about to depart was asked to take from the queen a little parcel to his wife. The box, contained the decoration, which the modest mayor was compelled to accept, and by virtue of which he became a member of the small fraternity of which his sovereign is the head. of which his sovereign is the head.

Whitefield, one of the founders of Methodism, who died in 1770, was a strenuous preacher. His usual programme was 40 hours' solid speaking each week, and this to congregations measured by thousands, but he often spoke for 60 hours. This was not all. For "after his labors, instead of taking a rest, he was engaged in offering up prayers and intercessions or in singing hymns, as his manner was, in every house to which he was invited."
